NOTES

- Transfers may experience minor delays beyond Patagonia Camp's control: as these are shared services with other guests, multiple pick-ups and drop-offs are performed simultaneously. However, waiting time should not exceed 25 minutes.
- Departure and arrival times are approximate; please allow sufficient time when flights or border crossings are involved in the itinerary.
- Transfers must be arranged and booked at least five days in advance. In case of last-minute changes to the reserved schedule, they will be subject to seat availability; otherwise, extra charges may apply if another vehicle is required.
- Airport host: for flights arriving in Puerto Natales, we have a host at the airport who will welcome our guests and assist with any questions they may have.

How does our transfer system work?

How do transfers work in the Shared All Inclusive Program?

1. Shared transfers
